

Audiences are Riveted by Linda's Message of Personal & Global Health

She Will Transform Your Conference into an Unforgettable Experience because...

- 1. Linda is a recognized expert in producing compost/soil and food without poison
- 2. Linda's passion will ignite & energize your audience
- 3. Linda weaves a wonderful sense of humor into her presentation. She is the oldest of 8 in an Italian family.

Linda's message is simple: "Food & water for everyone, everyday."

As a teenager Linda lived in Spain and Italy and learned first hand that there were people in the world who couldn't turn on a faucet for water or a switch for light. Linda's commitment is to work towards the goal of healthy food and water for everyone, everyday. Her message and solution are compelling.

Here's what a few people say about Linda

"She gave one of the best and most dynamic talks of anyone that's ever spoken there. Linda is devoted and dedicated to the wonderful cause she represents and is simply an exciting and memorable speaker. She talks from the heart, is straight-forward and she hit a home-run."

Howard Garrett – Montgomery NY
Orange County's Champion for the Arts 2008

"Linda Borghi is an outspoken advocate for local food and biodynamic farming. She speaks with passion about the relationship between our health and the health of the land. And she readily connects people with what they can do to change the course of their own lives and to promote the viability of local and healthy food. Blunt but entertaining, Linda does not mince words as she informs and motivates her audience. She literally provides a taste of what we should all expect of our food supply."

Michael R. Edelstein, Ph.D.,
Professor of Environmental Studies at Ramapo College and President of Orange Environment, Inc.

"We all need to step up and do our part in the healing of the planet and ourselves. Linda is one of the teachers that can help us do that."

Peggy Landrum, Blooming Grove NY
